DON'T THINK OF DYING

Because There is a Society In Town Opposed to It

ITS MEMBERS WORK AND EAT

But They Do It According To a System, and Retain Their Health—Glame, Food, Cheerfulness and Exercise Are What They Cultivate—It Is Growing As the System Becomes Known.

A society formed for the sole purpose of fighting death is one of the novelties in the city, and as its aims and objects are becoming known the membership is gaining, for all mankind have a wholesome fear of the grim destroyer.

The organization has been in existence several months, and already the members say they are feeling the beneficial effect of doing nothing more than take care of themselves. The idea is a system which originated 20 years ago with Everett Ralston in a New England town, and since that time has spread to all parts of the country, particularly in the East, where thousands of people observe the rules of the system every day in the year. The system is but little known in this city, except among those whose attention has been called to it within the past few months, and who are now doing their best to carry out its teachings. Of course they are enthusiastic believers in the system, and daily perform the task it requires while preaching its principles to their friends. The prime thought in Ralstonism is that there is no allotted end to human life, and you are not expected to grow feeble and die because you happen to be 70 years old. They believe that old age is ossification. As the years pile up the ossious matter gathers about the bones, arteries become clogged with it, and muscles lose their power. Then the body becomes weak, and the human frame soon loses its influence. Then the body ceases to be an active agent, and death results.

The system is controlled by four wealthy chemists, who have founded an institution in Washington, where the system is taught. To them it is a craze, and they are pushing it on a system which does not allow them to make money from it. All the information is contained in a book which costs a dollar, all the expense connected with the system. The disciple is never called upon to pay another cent, and advocates say there are people enjoying good health who have never been ill a day since they purchased the book 10 years ago.

Members are divided into two classes, those who are sick and want to get well, and those who are well and want to remain that way. According to the system the principal points are glame, cheerfulness, exercise and food, the glame being a mysterious something which permeates over liquid and solid food and the air we breathe and then turns to life in our bodies. It is the same substance, force or whatever it may be called, which leaves the ground and enters into the plant to keep it alive and well. As yet no man has seen it, and it has never been subjected to a chemical test, but it is known to exist, for it is life itself. These points are attended to carefully in the course of instruction, and special attention is given to food. Members are not expected to diet themselves, but are made acquainted with the necessary amounts of different nourishing qualities in various articles of food, and are expected to follow a general table prepared for their use. Fresh and pure food is another requisite, and because adulterated foods are poison to the system, and wilted vegetables are unfit for use, every member is in a measure an assistant to the pure food commissioner. They say the glame has gone out of these articles, and they are no longer of any use in imparting life to the human being. Another matter of importance is the use of water. Regulations providing for the bath are in a measure strict, and the patient is warned not to use the liquid when it is hot. All sorts of queer statements are made in the book, but members who have tried the system long enough to know what it is say they are true, and can not be doubted. They hope to keep all who are interested in perfect health, restore youthful vitality to those who are getting old, and keep death away as long as possible. They say they do not boycott the doctors, but it is true that they are opposed to medicines except as a last resort. Perhaps the most unique idea connected with the treatment is the development of a giant race. By providing their children with the rules and laws governing their physical frames, fathers and mothers expect to keep the bones soft for many years longer than the ordinary treatment allows, and thus enable them to grow to greater heights and widths. At present this experiment is being carried on with marked success, and the ultimate attainment of this object is confidently expected. Cheerfulness is also cultivated, which means a mental as well as a physical growth.

The East Liverpool colony is flourishing, and doing very well. The members are glad they belong to the society, and claim to be already benefited in health. Members are secured by invitation of some one already interested, a printed form being provided for that purpose. When the invited one accepts the invitation he does it in writing and that is all there is to it. Some of the best known people in town are members, and the stories they tell of improvement in health is nothing short of wonderful. One confidentially informed a reporter that his chest measure had visibly increased, and his weight was greater than when he lived like ordinary human beings. A peep into the book of instruction showed an elaborate array of rules covering almost every imaginable form of disease, and providing for their care by the system. Taken all in all the matter is as unique as its exponents claim it is useful and as the news spreads abroad there is little doubt that East Liverpool will have its share of Ralstonites.

THAT DOW TAX.

Finance Committee Has Three Claims Against the County.

Council is now after money and if there is not a stirring up of the Dow Tax muddle it will be a surprise.

When John Sant handed his array of figures to President Marshall during that important meeting of the solons and some serious charges were read, it set the city fathers to thinking. They thought further when the President came out in a statement in the News Review and last night they decided to act. That is, the finance committee did and held a meeting in Clerk Hanley's office last night. President Marshall, Mr. Kent and Mr. Owen were the members present. Mr. Stewart was the absentee. John Sant was present but not a word was said about his bill. Instead, the committee devoted their whole time to having a proper explanation of some things which finally became clear and they decided to enter three claims for a total amount of $2,026.80.

One was for $1,727.58, the interest on the delinquent Dow tax, which the city received a short time ago. Claim No. 2 was for $166.22, the city's amount of Dow tax overpaid to the state. This is the result of the Dow tax transactions of '93.

The most interesting claim, however, is the third one for $133, and Mr. Garrigues is the ex-official who must answer. The claim is based upon the evidence that several years ago Collector Bowman came to this city and got from several saloonkeepers the Dow tax they had neglected to pay. Of the entire amount, all but $133 was returned to the city treasury. The $133 was, according to claims, given Bowman as his commission for collecting, but the law does not allow for any such commission. Instead, the sheriff must collect the amounts or shut up the saloons of those who do not pay. As Bowman is now dead East Liverpool must look to Mr. Garrigues, who was then auditor, and necessarily paid the commission.

The papers have not yet been filed, but will be placed before the commissioners this week.

THAT PROMISED SUIT

Appears at Lisbon—Lawyer Marshall versus Constable Albright.

Lisbon, July 2.—Attorney E. D. Marshall, of East Liverpool, today filed an action against Constable Dick Albright for $300 damages, which he claims because Albright levied on goods in the saloon of Thomas Abrams and sold them after he had been warned by plaintiff not to do so. Marshall claims that the goods belonged to him. The United Presbyterian congregation petitioned the court today for authority to encumber the church property to the amount of $18.17 to erect a parsonage on the rear of the church lot.

ROAD RACE PRIZES.

They Will Be Given Next Week at the Club's Next Week.

The prizes for the riders in the road race will be given out at the club quarters on Fourth street, when a meeting will be held next Monday evening. The committee hope to have the club rooms comfortably finished by that time, and good accommodations for all the members. The membership has been visibly increased since Saturday, the prime cause being the road race, which caused no end of enthusiasm.

HE SPOILED THE SETS

By Taking the Choicest From the Warehouse.

HENRY YEARDSLEY THE MAN

Upon Whom H. A. McNicol Looked With Suspicion and Who Confessed His Guilt When Arrested—Escaped Prosecution By Compromise.

When somebody visited the warehouse at the Dresden pottery and helped themselves to ordinary ware, Manager H. A. McNicol never said a word. But when the party selected the best grades of decorated goods and broke up several sets, he kicked and did some thinking.

The result was that yesterday he accompanied Constable Lyon to the boarding house operated by Mrs. Burroughs and the pair were shown through the apartments of Henry Yeardsley, an employe at the city water works pumping station. They found there considerable of the missing ware and took possession of it. Then the constable called on Yeardsley and arrested him. The prisoner was taken before Squire Rose and a conference was held. Yeardsley confessed to stealing the ware, and claimed it was the result of spite work, although just how it was not clear. Although only a portion of the ware was found, Yeardsley said they had found all he had taken. Mr. McNicol had no desire to prosecute after finding the goods and allowed Yeardsley to compromise with the court by promising to pay the costs in two weeks and stand committed during that time. The prisoner was released on his own recognizance.

The stolen ware only amounted in value to about $8, but its disappearance meant the loss of considerable money unless the broken sets were refilled. Yeardsley is a young unmarried man and was formerly employed at the Dresden pottery. This firm has been a heavy loser by thefts of ware, but most of the guilty parties have been captured, the Levi Hamilton case of a few months ago being among the prosecutions.

KNOCKED OUT AGAIN.

Decision in the Golding Case—Sensational Testimony.

Special to News Review.

Lisbon, July 2.—This afternoon Judge Taylor appeared unexpectedly in court and announced that he had decided to dismiss M. E. Golding's petition. He gave a lengthy opinion and scored Mr. Golding severely and vindicated P. M. Smith. Judge Moore immediately filed notice of appeal but it is a question about the case being appealable.

Special to News Review.

Lisbon, July 2.—Judge Taylor did not arrive here until late yesterday afternoon, and the Connors-Golding case could not be heard until he came. Court was convened at once, and Fairbanks, the long sought for witness, was put on the stand. In substance he said:

"I was witness in this case before, and have known Timothy Connors for years. I went with him at his request to P. M. Smith's office, and told them what I knew. I was there a number of times. I told him that Benjamin Wilkinson was the foreman at the mill, or at least I always thought so, and always reported to him as such. The morning of the trial I came over here with a number of witnesses, and drank about a pint of whisky. We went in the grand jury room and P. M. Smith came in and told us not to say anything that would show any prejudice in the case. Connors was hurt on Saturday and I spliced the rope, and put a piece on it after he was hurt. At the time of the accident the rope was short, but with care could have been used all right. I had worked there before Connors came and remember telling him at one time to block the cylinder in front, and stop them in the cog wheels. I done this for my own sake, although we were not allowed to do it."

At this point he was questioned as to the sobriety of Connors at the time of the accident, but the court ruled it out. He was allowed to say that Connors always denied to him that he was drunk that night, although he admitted he had been drinking during the evening.

"I did tell Mr. Smith that I had made a mistake in my testimony when I said there was no rope, and he said it was all the same, and too late to change it, as court had adjourned. Connors was at my house the Sunday after the trial but did not say anything as to his condition the night of the accident. The witness Hayes was with him, and said to him 'Teddy here was your best witness and stood right with you and you ought to remember him.' To this Connors answered: 'you poor Irish devil, when I get my money I'll give you $50 and help you out.' Before I went on the witness stand I was perfectly sober the first time, but will admit the last time in the evening I was drunk, but knew what I was doing. I was forbidden to see anyone in jail, and even my wife couldn't see me. I saw no one but Judge Moore, and him only once. When I made the affidavit last fall I went to work in the mill, and beside my wages I got two checks from Mr. Clark of $10 each, and this was to get two witnesses to go before a squire to make affidavit, contrary to what they had testified at the trial.

I was to see Daugherty and Delaney and the object was to get a start against Connors. Clark told me to take them to General Reilly's office in Wellsville or anywhere—to New York if necessary. I told Clark I would get this for him even if I had to get them drunk, and he told me not to get them too drunk. He also told me that they would defray all expenses. I took Daugherty to General Reilly and he rejected his affidavit, saying that Golding should have seen to that before. I deny that Manor came to me and got me to sign a paper to the effect that P. M. Smith had given me a pint of whiskey. P. M. Smith gave me 50 cents in the court room when I asked him for it to get my dinner, and with this I bought whisky. I suppose that is where that story originated. Manor told me once that if I worked on both sides of the case I could not work at the mill. Golding gave me $2.50 one evening in January, but this was deducted from my wages. I was paid $18 for two weeks when I did not work at the mill, but during this time I was hunting Daugherty and Delaney. The affidavits that they were to make were concerning Connors' intoxication on the night of the accident. During this time I was laid off to all appearances, but drew my wages. I told those fellows if they would go down and make affidavit they would not lose anything by it."

This was the substance of Fairbanks' testimony, and court adjourned for supper. It was intended arguing the motion after supper, but the attorneys submitted the testimony to Judge Taylor and he took the documents with him when he went home this morning. The decision will come later.

CHARLES PANCAKE DEAD.

A Bright Young Druggist Passes Away This Afternoon.

The announcement was made this afternoon of a death that will bring sorrow to many hearts in this city.

At 2:30 o'clock, after more than a month's illness with typhoid pneumonia and hemorrhage of the lungs, Charles A. Pancake, the Fourth street druggist, passed away. Deceased was one of the brightest young men in the city, coming from the north of the city and first purchasing an interest in the pharmacy of Emmett Albright. He complained of being ill some time before he took to his bed and even to the last his will power was exerted so bravely that it could scarce be believed that he would not recover.

Deceased was aged 26 years. His parents reside near Mount Zion church at Sixteen but he has been ill at William McLean's on Jefferson street. He was an earnest member of the First United Presbyterian church, Sons of Veterans and the Columbian club, and these two organizations will have charge of the funeral, although arrangements have not been completed.

THEY PAID FOR IT.

Hassey and Mercer Fined by Mayor Gilbert.

Jack Hassey, who fought with Howard Mercer at the National House yesterday afternoon, appeared at city hall yesterday afternoon and paid $7.60. Mercer was released by paying the same amount. The pair met near the Hotel Grand about 4:30 o'clock and had some words, but did not come to blows.

The cases were the only ones at city hall yesterday and no new ones appeared today, the jail being empty.

Postponed.

The contemplated dance at the Columbian club has been postponed on account of the death of Charles Pancake, he having been a member of that organization.

A MINUTE IN A MONTH

The New Clock Will Not Vary In Time That Much.

WILL STRIKE IN TEN DAYS

M. D. Bradley, the Expert of the Thomas Company, Is Here From New York, and Will Soon Have the Big Time Piece in Position—He Says It Is Nice.

When the News Review suggested a year ago that a clock be placed in the tower at the new school building the idea was well received, the board of education decided to follow it, and the realization came today, when the work of placing the time piece in position began.

M. D. Bradley, one of the experts in the employ of the company, arrived in town last evening from Georgia, where he has been doing similar work, and early this morning began the task. In conversation with a reporter he said the time for completion could not yet be told, but he was of the opinion that a week or 10 days at the farthest would hear the clock striking the hour. He points to the clock with no little pride as it is the best made, being provided with all modern improvements, and made to keep accurate time. It will not vary more than a minute in a month, he said, and its striking power is enough to send the sound throughout the city, provided the bell is large enough. The hammer weighs 35 pounds, and is controlled by a powerful force. The machinery only occupies a space of four feet square, but the dials are seven feet in diameter, and the best that could be purchased. The tower is all right, and strong enough to hold all the weight of the clock, but he thinks twice when he looks at the bell. It may be large enough, but Mr. Bradley thinks a larger bell would be much better. The company, however, is not responsible for that part of the job, although it has an arrangement with a bell foundry, and will furnish bells if they are needed. Mr. Bradley will be delayed somewhat because the stairs have not yet been placed in the tower, but he will have the clock striking in the specified time.

RACES ON THE FOURTH.

Harris and Bott in the Pittsburg—Beaver Falls Road Race.

The road race from Pittsburg to Beaver Falls on the morning of July 4 will no doubt be witnessed by many East Liverpool people, as two East Liverpool men, Jack Harris and Billy Bott, will be among the riders.

The start will be at the Pittsburg Press office about 9 o'clock and a train will be in waiting at the Union depot to carry the crowd into Beaver Falls in plenty of time to see the finish. Already there are 117 entries and it is thought that there will be nearer 130 when the start is made.

Bott will also be in the races on the Beaver track in the afternoon, as will George Hale, who is entered in all of the eleven events except the contest for the county championship. Principal among the races will be the tandem contest, and Hale will have a chance to show his speed once more against Banker. Hale will ride a tandem with Bert Irons, of the Eclipse team; Banker and Scott, of Pittsburg, will ride together, and Major Brothers, of Cleveland, will be the other contestants. There are 137 entries for the track races on the Fourth.

BASE BALL.

West End Pottery Team Completely Buried—Other Games.

Burford's pottery boys went to West End park yesterday afternoon and preserved their reputation of the present season. They played the team from the West End pottery and the tale is better told by the score, 33-17 in favor of Burford's.

The soldiers boys played the East End Juniors again yesterday and were defeated by a score of 14-4.

The East End club and Smoky Row Stars are booked for a game at Gardner park tomorrow afternoon. The Stars will also play the Georgetown club on the same grounds Saturday afternoon.

Adjournment of Court.

Lisbon, July 2.—Court will probably adjourn on July 15, until the beginning of the October term, the first Monday in October. The East Liverpool cases have nearly all been tried.

Kicked the Buggy.

When Fred Hulme, a dipper at Laughlin's, was driving on the Calcutta road last night his horse began kicking, and soon the front buggy was a wreck. No one was hurt.

PROTESTANTS TO LEO.

Their Appeal for South Americans Heard.

GIBBONS WRITES TO METHODISTS.

He Encloses a Letter From the Cardinal Secretary of State Orders Sent to Apostolic Delegates to Investigate the Disabilities of Protestants.

MILWAUKEE, July 2.—The 75 Methodist ministers and their wives of Chicago, who are in this city, have held an important meeting on board the boat in relation to the disabilities of Protestants in South American countries.

The Chicago Methodist ministers' meeting, April 2, 1894, appointed a committee to invite the pope's attention to the fact "that our Protestant brethren in republics of Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia are under oppressive disabilities that affect not only the profession of their faith and the public worship of God according to the dictates of their consciences, but also their civil and inalienable right to be legally married without being compelled to forewear their religious convictions" and to respectfully and earnestly request him to secure for these Protestants "the same liberty of conscience that is enjoyed by Roman Catholic citizens of their country."

Letters were written to Archbishop Ireland, Mgr. Sotolli, Cardinal Gibbons and finally to the pope himself, but no reply was received until recently. The letter sent to the Chicago clergy is from Cardinal Gibbons in Rome and is addressed to Mr. John Lee. It reads as follows: "In reply to your favor of 28th ult. I beg to say that some days ago I referred the matter of the disabilities of Protestants in Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia, to the cardinal secretary of state. His eminence now writes me as follows:

"The letter written to your eminence by Mr. Lee of Chicago has reference to a state of things solely dependent upon the civil laws in force in the republics of Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia. Nevertheless, as your eminence has been pleased to communicate to me said letter, I have written to the apostolic delegates in the above named republics to obtain precise information concerning the laws which affect the condition of Protestants there as regards both the exercises of their religion and the declarations of marriages. In communicating this to your eminence I take it upon myself to call the attention of the Holy See to the information which the aforesaid delegates will send."

"In availing myself of the opportunity to tender you my best wishes for your welfare, I am, dear sir, yours sincerely in Christ."

GIBBONS TOO PATRIOTIC.

He Wouldn't Resign to Live in Rome at the Pope's Request.

BALTIMORE, July 2.—No significance is attached here to the report from Rome that Cardinal Gibbons was requested by the pope to surrender his diocese and reside in Rome. One of the members of the cardinal's household, said:

"Even admitting it to be a fact that the pope would extend to his eminence such an invitation, which is very unlikely it would be contrary to all of Cardinal Gibbons' idea, to abandon the distinguished and responsible position as the head of the Church of America to engage in the affairs of the Vatican. Cardinal Gibbons, while a strong churchman, is also a very patriotic American, and knows he can render the church far greater service in his present eminent station than in any which he would be called upon to occupy at Rome."

The Cup Defender Afloat.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 2.—The new yacht Defender, upon which the hopes of America depend for victory over the English boat, with which she is to compete next fall, rests gracefully in the waters of Bristol bay at the dock of the Herreshoff works, having been released from the position into which she became fastened during an attempt to launch her on Saturday. A thorough examination of the hull by divers has been made and it is pronounced uninjured.

DR. BUCHANAN ELECTROCUTES.

His Wife Pleaded With Governor Norton on Her Knees, but It Availed Not.

SING SING, July 2.—With two electric contacts, consuming not over a minute, Dr. Buchanan has been put to death in Sing Sing prison. Like all the others who have preceded him, he went to death calmly and did not say a word in the death chamber. The only appearance of fright or weakness was the fact that he closed his eyes when he entered and did not open them again.

Two contacts were made, but all the physicians and electricians claim that the second contact was merely precautionary and that the victim died instantly. There were no burns and no unpleasant features and every physician present declared the execution a success. The body has been claimed by friends. Buchanan had poisoned his second wife. His wife, from whom he had been divorced, and remarried her after the death of his second wife, pleaded with Governor Morton on her knees, but to no avail, as he would not commute the sentence.

Turkey Asked to Explain.

SOFIA, July 2.—The government of Bulgaria has requested the Turkish government to explain the orders issued to the commander of the Turkish troops at Adrianople to act on his own initiative along the Bulgarian frontier. At the same time the Bulgarian government has notified the Porte that the duty of watching over the security of the frontier compels Bulgaria to take military measures.

He Sold Army Positions.

CHICAGO, July 2.—J. H. Manley has been arrested, charged with selling United States army positions. Manley is accused of representing himself as a lieutenant in the regular army and disposing of "jobs," ranging from private to lieutenant, at fees of from $10 to $300. The prisoner wears a United States army uniform and is said to be an ex-officer.

Two Increases In Wages.

ASHLAND, Ky., July 2.—An increase of 10 per cent in wages has gone into effect at the nail mills of the Norton iron works. A like increase is to be effective in 60 days. Both are voluntary with the company. The present trade with the plant is the best that has been had in ten years past.

Poisoned by Ice Cream.

OWENSBORO, Ky., July 2.—At the St. Cloud hotel here, eight people are ill from ice cream poisoning, one of whom, Lizzie Tucker, may die. The poison is pronounced by physicians to be tyrotoxin, and it is claimed that the milk was impure.

Operatives' Wages Increased.

GUERIN IS DICTATOR.

His Man Named Receiver of the C., S. & H. Railroad.

A RECEIVER ALSO FOR B., Z. & C.

Bondholders Named by the Courts of Belmont County on Application of the First Mortgage Bondholders—Closely Connected With C., S. & H. Reorganization.

COLUMBUS, July 2.—J. H. Stewart, just appointed receiver of the Columbus, Sandusky and Hooking railroad, has appointed William Thornburg general manager. Stewart was general superintendent under the old regime and was brought to the road by President Guerin about four months ago with the view, it is understood, of making him receiver should that emergency arise. It would seem that the Guerin influence is still in control.

A Zanesville special says: On the application of the first mortgage bondholders of the Bellaire, Zanesville and Cincinnati railway, J. K. Geddes, formerly general manager, has been named receiver by the courts of Belmont county. The company would have been in default in interest on prior lien bonds, and the action was taken for the purpose of forestalling any movement of this kind on the part of holders of these bonds.

The road is closely connected with the Columbus, Sandusky and Hooking in a plan for reorganization, but the naming of a receiver for the one had nothing to do with the one for the other. It is thought by the management that the plans for reorganization of the road will be carried out as projected.

A Big Ohio Failure.

WELLINGTON, O., July 2.—The firm of Laundon, Windecker & Co., one of the oldest in this vicinity, has failed. D. C. Baldwin of Elyria being named as assignee. The firm, in addition to conducting a banking business and general store, operated 10 cheese factories. The assignment was precipitated by the liability of the senior partner, Samuel K. Laundon, in the Clarified Stone company, amounting to $33,000. The liabilities of the firm, which are not stated, are believed to be large, consisting mainly of money to banks. The individual depositors are said to have been secured.

Opposed to His Sermons.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 2.—A sensation has sprung up in the Mahoning Avenue Baptist church which has resulted in the pastor, Rev. F. G. Warnick, being asked by the official board to resign. The matter will be brought before the congregation. The trouble grew out of a series of rather sensational sermons which Rev. Warnick preached recently on marriage and divorce, choosing a wife, choosing a husband, etc., some of which it seems did not meet with the approval of certain members of the board and congregation.

Order of Foresters Doomed.

CLEVELAND, July 2.—Grand Ranger William Oelstrom of the Ohio division, Independent Foresters, announces that the order in this state will probably pass out of existence within two or three days. A look of young blood is given as the cause of the order's failure, and it is estimated that the members will lose in the neighborhood of $70,000. The policies outstanding aggregate $700,000. The order was organized principally for the insurance of members on the assessment plan.

Crushed Under His Wagon.

TOLEDO, July 2.—Theodore Deshner of Manhattan road, in turning the corner of the street leading to the Shaw-Kendall foundry, cut around so close to the ditch that a front wheel of his wagon struck a loose plank in the edge of the road. The shock threw out the end board upon which he was sitting, and he tumbled off directly behind the horses' wheels. The animals sprang away and the heavy wheels of the brick wagon passed over Deshner's head, crushing it to a pulp.

New Chair at Wesleyan.

DELAWARE, O., July 2.—Dr. Benjamin F. Cessna of Kenton, O., has deeded property sufficient to provide for a professorship at Ohio Wesleyan university. The donor is to receive the net income of the property during his lifetime, and at his decease the income goes to the perpetual provision of a chair in the college here. Dr. Cessna is the second graduate to provide for the endowment of a chair. Dr. G. H. Hartupel of Delaware, O., being the first.

A Porkpacking Firm Assigns.

CINCINNATI, July 2.—Sigmund Frietsch & Co., a porkpacking firm on Coleman street, has assigned to Moses Ruskin, who estimates the assets at $110,000, and the liabilities at $35,000. Mr. Frietsch says the assignment is only a suspension caused by the high price of hogs and the low price of lard. Among the creditors is the Merchants National bank, $20,000. The firm has always had a favorable standing.

A Jockey Mortally Stabbed.

CINCINNATI, July 2.—At the Oakley racetrack Jockey Henry Weber, connected with the stable of Dr. Grace, was awakened by the noisy demonstrations of a colored stable boy, known as Gib. Weber rebuked the boy, whereupon an angry encounter followed, during which Gib fatally stabbed Weber. Weber's home is in Louisville.

Must Have Been Murdered.

CINCINNATI, July 2.—Mr. A. G. Jenney, who for 20 years has been the esteemed bookkeeper of the Consolidated Coal company, in this city, has been found dead in the Ohio river. He is highly connected here, his books are all right and his home was happy. All this seems to exclude any other supposition than criminal violence as the cause of his death.

New College President Installed.

COLUMBUS, July 2.—James H. Canfield has been installed as president of the Ohio State university, at Columbus. He came from the University of Nebraska, and prior to that service had been with the University of Kansas. He is a graduate of Williams college and a native of New England.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Workmen are busy today repairing the East End trestle, and reinforcing some of the old timbers. It needed it.

The regular weekly prayer meeting will be held in the Second United Presbyterian church this evening instead of tomorrow night.

The lawn fete given by the East End Tourist club last night was largely attended and proved a very enjoyable and successful affair.

The Women's Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Orr, East End, tomorrow afternoon.

The monthly meeting of the directors of the Fairmont Children's home is being held at Alliance today and Hon. David Boyce, of this city, is in attendance.

E. C. Webster has moved his household goods from this city to Louisville, where he will find employment in John Sant's new pottery. Other potters will leave in the next few days.

A band of strolling musicians who make good music with violin and harp are in town, and will play for the Columbian and Phoenix clubs at a hop to be held in the Columbian ball room tonight.

Work was begun yesterday on the dissecting of the patrol station preparatory to clearing the lot of the structure. It will soon be gone and the city will have another vacant corner at its disposal.

The walk in the yard at the new school building is being laid, and like all other parts of that now famous institution is as substantial as it is good looking. The stones are large and in keeping with the ornamental gate posts.

Base ball fever at the campground reached its height last night when the combined forces of the circle and row succeeded in beating the Juniors of the Young Men's Christian association. Vigorous kicks from both sides marked the contest.

The last of the Farmer derrick has probably been heard in this city, since it was taken this morning to the home of J. R. Warner at Alum Cliffs. Never before did so ungainly a thing as a derrick cause so much trouble and discussion in Liverpool.

Masons desirous of attending the big conclave at Boston next month are already making inquiries about rates, and it is thought an effort will be made to start a Pullman full from the city. Agent Adam Hill will do all he can in the matter of rates.

John Sant indignantly denies that he has been sued by John Dixon for an ice bill. He says that he never had any dealing with Dixon, and therefore could not be made a defendant in a suit for money. It was some other Sant or a man bearing a similar name.

The Audubon club elected officers last night by choosing the following: John Schwartz, president; Homer Risinger, vice president; John McKinney, secretary; Walter Williams, treasurer. The executive committee is made up of Messrs. Risinger, McKinney and Del Tarr.

A permit was granted yesterday for the removal of the Wyllie house on Walnut street to another location. This will give the Union Pottery company the long desired opportunity of increasing the capacity of the plant by building a new kiln or two on the ground. The improvement was decided upon soon after the company purchased the property.

Farmers say that wheat is ready to cut, and in spite of all the complaining during the frosty weather of June, promises to be a fair yield. Clover is a disappointment, as the cutting develops a poor crop. An average yield of oats is anticipated, while corn and potatoes present a much improved appearance. Hay is nothing and wild berries are scarcely worth picking. There will be a very decent crop of apples, but no other fruit worth mentioning.

"When Wellsville can talk street sweeper I think Liverpool should do something," remarked a well known merchant today, whose store has suffered from the dust storms. "We have more miles of paved streets than they can think about, and our people have been agitating it much longer. If Wellsville gets a sweeper before we do we should hang our heads in shame," and the merchant walked away with a curious gleam in his eye and a scowl on his face.

Base ball games without number are being talked of now that the lawyers have declared war. The clothing men want to play with the shoe sellers, and Lou Steinfeld is going around with base ball in his eye, inspecting the qualifications of various applicants for position on the team. The dry goods men think they can play ball, and say so, although E. M. Crosser asserts that he would rather pay a substitute than play in the hot sun. Meanwhile the Phoenix club is waiting for any of them to send around a challenge.

WELLSVILLE.

WANTS IN WELLSVILLE

Council Anxious to Know About the Pumps.

A STREET SWEEPER NEEDED

The Meeting Last Night Developed a Desire For Sidewalks Where They Are Needed and Showed the Absence of Land For the Extension of Liverpool Street as a Wide Thoroughfare.

Council chamber was a business-like place last night, and the members acted as though they were there for business. They talked about the water works, and discussed the wickedness of Wellsville prisoners, while various other matters of importance were disposed of with dispatch.

The report of the mayor for June showed a total of $89 15, $75 50 of which was the result of fines, while licenses brought in $11. The quarterly report of the cemetery trustees gave the balance on hand as $891.91, and the water works commission asked that a switch be laid at the pumping station in order that coal and other materials can be unloaded. It was left with the improvement committee, and then the name of U. Champey was added to the board of health. A resolution calling for sidewalks on Center street, was passed on the third reading, and the clerk was instructed to notify the superintendent of the water works that the people on Nevada street were objecting to the water pipes, and wanted them lowered. Another resolution notifying all people to lay pavements, where pavements are needed, went through with a rush, and the question of howling in the jail on Sunday was raised by Mr. Everson. There was a laugh in the chamber when he suggested that the enthusiasm of these musicians be dampened by turning on the hose. After Mr. Everson regretted the law would not allow this, the committee having in charge the extension of Liverpool street reported that Mr. Wells would give no more ground, he having already given 15 feet, and the plat was accepted. The dusty condition of the streets brought out the advisability of purchasing a street sweeper, and it was found there were earnest advocates of this method of cleaning the streets in council. They pointed out the necessity of such an institution and showed where it would save money. After a thorough discussion it was referred to the improvement committee, and bills aggregating $1,655.43 were paid. The improvement committee was given power to act in the matter of a new culvert on Liverpool street, and the water works question arose. Council wanted information before it could go farther, and the clerk was instructed to obtain it from the trustees. The members are anxious to know the exact condition of those troublesome old pumps. Then council returned to star chamber session, and what they did was not made known. They talked some matter over with Solicitor Lones at length, but eventually finished it and went home.

FEW DIE.

Wellsville Was a Healthy Town Last Month.

The report of the board of health to council last night showed the town to be in excellent condition, there being but four deaths during the month. Not a case of contagious disease is heard of, and the people who are sick have no dangerous affliction. There were seven burial permits during the month, but some of these were for people who died away from town. All the alleys are clean, and there is no trouble about the garbage question.

In Police Court.

The fines of George Marshall and Andy McCormack were paid last night and the other two charges against each were nolle. George Thornley was proven not guilty of fighting with Ed Porter and released. Thomas Ford's case for loitering on a street corner will probably never come to trial.

The Population Increases.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young, East End, a son.

pain, headache, backache, and nervous disturbances, or the general health not good, the judicious use of medicine should be employed. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best restorative tonic and nerve tonic at this time. The best bodily condition results from its use. It's a remedy specially indicated for those delicate weaknesses and derangements that afflict women at one period or another. You'll find that the woman who has faithfully used the "Prescription" is the picture of health, she looks well and she feels well.

In catarrhal inflammation, in chronic displacements common to women, where there are symptoms of backache, dizziness or fainting, bearing down sensations, disordered stomach, moodiness, fatigue, etc., the trouble is surely dispelled and the sufferer brought back to health and good spirits.

"WOMAN'S ILLS."
Mrs. W. R. Bates, of Delaware, Trumbull Co.,
Ohio.
A few years ago I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which has been a great benefit to me. I am in excellent health now. I hope that every woman, who is troubled with "women's ills," will try the "Prescription" and be benefited as I have been.

WE WILL CELEBRATE

Although Not on an Extensive Plan, Fourth of July.

East Liverpool will at least make an attempt at a Fourth of July celebration this year, the announcement coming at the eleventh hour.

The Junior and Senior Mechanics of this city and Chester and the Patriotic Order Sons of America have arranged to turn out for parade, and invite all other orders to join them on Thursday morning.

There will be exercises in the Diamond and possibly music. Attorney J. H. Brookes will read the Declaration of Independence and then some one will deliver the oration.

All orders deciding to join in the parade are requested to inform J. W. Kissinger by letter or message left at Squire J. N. Rose's office in the Diamond, not later than tomorrow evening.

Numerous Camps.

Beaver creek is dotted with more camps this year than have ever before been known. From the mouth to Grimm's bridge white tents are always in sight, and Liverpool people who have been visiting there say the hospitality of the campers is unbounded. There are parties there from Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Cleveland, and ground has been taken for a crowd from some eastern city. The fishing is not very good, but the campers are having all the fun they could want.

The Inter-State May Go.

Word has been received here from some of the Liverpool boys playing ball in the Dennison club that the Inter-State league may come to an end this week. The crowds have not been large enough to make the owners rich men, and they want to get out of it. This means that a number of our boys will be out of employment.

Not a Laddie.

In the article in yesterday's issue regarding the fight at National park Saturday night, reflections seems to have been cast on a member of the local fire department. The fireman mentioned was a fireman in one of the potteries and no laddie was noticed in the trouble.

To Come Up Next Week.

The case of Ex-Councilman Harry Williams against Ex-Councilman W. T. Burton will come up before Judge Billingsley at Lisbon Friday. The action is for a settlement of partnership affairs in connection with their knob works.

The Lists are Out.

The new lists of selling prices for crockery have all been sent out. There has so far been no perceptible change in the condition of trade, but a few weeks will bring a turn for better or worse and all the manufacturers are earnestly hoping that it will be for the better.

A Small Case.

The case of Harrison Rinehart versus W. E. Cooper was tried before Squire Rose this morning. The amount involved is only $50 and the question now seems only as to who shall pay the costs of the action. The squire reserved his decision.

Found the Badge.

George Smith, employed by painter McCain, saw the advertisement in last night's News Review for E. A. Chandler's Junior Mechanic badge and returned it today. Another example of value of the want "ad" in the News Review.

BOTH PAPERS WERE USEFUL.

The Fortunate Result of a Tennessee Justice Mixing His Documents.

Bill Wright was a justice of the peace, and also an absentminded man, whose wife was as able an orator as Xantippe.

Bill used to serve all his processes himself and to save time would sign the marriage certificates in blank and deliver a number to the parson.

One day Bill had a process to serve away up in the mountains on a semibarbarous recluse, who was sued for damages for some diabolical, and Bill thought he would deliver a few of the certificates to the parson.

So, sticking both packages of papers in the same pocket, he mounted his horse and rode off.

Reaching the minister's, he stopped and chatted awhile, and after delivering his papers, he started off again and took the road to the mountains.

The parson had a wedding that day, one of the parties being a notorious horse thief from an adjoining county. When the ceremony was over, the parson selected a certificate from the bundle and unrolled it sufficiently to sign his name. On handing it to the man the latter opened it, and his eye grew wild as he read instead of a marriage certificate a warrant of arrest, signed by both the justice of the peace and by the parson. He feared some trap, so surrendered himself to custody.

When the justice reached the mountain side, he took out the paper to read it and immediately saw its nature, but, maintaining his self possession, he recited the form of summons, which he fortunately remembered.

He then returned and found the horse thief in jail and went and saw the parson, remarking, with his own matrimonial felicity in mind, that both papers had unintentionally served the ends of justice.—University Courier.

Neal Dow Well Received.

HAVERHILL, Mass., July 2.—General Neal Dow on his arrival here was met at the station by a large delegation of temperance people, who escorted him to Independence hall, where a banquet was served to 500 people. Later a reception was tendered General Dow in the Central church. Today is the annual temperance day at Salisbury beach.

Will Try to Free the Robinsons.

BUFFALO, July 2.—Judge Hardesty, counsel for Clarence and Sadie Robinson, who was recently convicted of killing Montgomery Gibbs, states that an application will be made for a new trial on the strength of newly discovered evidence. The evidence he claims establishes a complete alibi.

Sentenced to Death a Second Time.

ATLANTA, July 2.—Willie Myers, aged 19, years, who lured Forest Crowley, a country merchant, to a lonely spot in the suburbs of this city one day last September and murdered him for his money, has been for the second time sentenced to hang, Aug. 2 is the date fixed for the execution.

Five Thousand Families Will Locate.

BALTIMORE, July 2.—Arrangements have been completed in this city for the sale of 11,000 acres of land in Wilcox and Irwin counties, Georgia, for colonists from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin and other western states. Five thousand families will locate on the lands.

Crispi Made a Prince.

LONDON, July 2.—According to a special dispatch received from Rome, King Humbert of Italy has bestowed the title of prince upon Premier Crispi, as a protest against the repeated attacks made upon him by socialists and others.

General Brinkerhoff an Official.

PARIS, July 2.—Mr. Randall has been elected vice president for America of the International Penitentiary Congress, now sitting at the Sorbonne. General Brinkerhoff of Mansfield, O., is among the vice presidents of sections.

A Lumber Dealer Assigns.

WHEELING, July 2.—S. F. Whiting, an extensive lumber dealer at Wheeling, this state, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. A. L. Holt is named as the assignee. Liabilities about $50,000; assets, $15,000.

Acquitted After Five Years.

LOWVILLE, N. Y., July 2.—Mary Wright of Watson has been discharged from custody on the ground of insufficiency of evidence. She was held for the murder, five years ago, of her first husband, James Hughes.

The Quarter Came Back.

"Excuse me, sir," said a Woodward avenue car conductor to a passenger riding on the platform with him the other morning, "but can you change a quarter?"

"Is it a plugged quarter?" cautiously asked the passenger.

"Yes, sir; plugged in two places."

"Get it about a week ago?"

"Yes, sir."

"From me?"

"Yes, sir."

"No, I can't change it. I carried that old coin around about three months and offered it to at least 50 conductors before you took it, and having finally worked it off I can't take it back. If you want to borrow two tens and a five, all right, but I can't take plugged quarters—can't possibly do it, even to oblige."—Detroit Free Press.

Castles In The Air.

"Castles in the air," to indicate dreaming projects, is an expression which first occurs in the writings of Sidney. It is believed, however, to be much older than his time. In the form "castles in Spain" it is found in the French literature, while the Latins had an expression "castles in Asia," and the Hindus rendered it as "castles in the moon."

Why He Wanted It Printed.

Composers are supposed to be able to decipher all kinds of handwriting, even that of editors and ministers. On this point Mr. Robert Clark, the Edinburgh printer, used to tell a story:

Professor Lindsay Alexander came into our office one Friday with the manuscript of a sermon.

"You must let me have proofs of this tomorrow," he said.

I told him the time was too short. He must give us a few days longer.

"No," he said. "I must preach this sermon tomorrow. It is a special sermon. I wrote it ten years ago, and now I can't make out a word of it."

YOUTH'S COMPANION.

The cold of Canada seems to diminish with an increase of population. Between 1828 and 1837 Hudson's bay was closed an average of 184 days every year; now its ice lasts 179 days.
